

Service technician (m/f/d)

Service, installation & commissioning of Postpress equipment worldwide

Interesting & diverse tasks

- ▶ Technical support on site and on the phone
- ▶ Maintenance, repairs & servicing
- ▶ Relocations and optimizations
- ▶ Mechanical & electrical installation of post-press systems behind web presses - in-house and on site
- ▶ Start-up & commissioning of machines and systems for our customers worldwide
- ▶ Ensuring production reliability & performance
- ▶ Troubleshooting & optimization of the system
- ▶ Training of operating and maintenance personnel
- ▶ Support in the acceptance process
- ▶ Production support, troubleshooting and performance improvements

Do you see yourself in this profile?

- ▶ Degree as an industrial / mechatronics engineer
- ▶ Experience & affinity for automation tasks
- ▶ Knowledge of PLC & drive technology
- ▶ Responsible, reliable, able to work independently
- ▶ Experience with complete lines is a plus
- ▶ Willing to travel internationally, English language skills

What we stand for

- ▶ Small, motivated team, quick decisions, flat hierarchies
- ▶ Performance-based compensation, flexible time management and 30 days vacation
- ▶ Modern company car, also for private use

IN-LOG | GÄMMERLER is a leading solution provider for Postpress and a brand of the Merten Group. In close cooperation with our customers, we develop individual solutions for insert, magazine, book and newspaper printers that are highly productive and reliable - from individual machines to complete systems. We use new, refurbished and existing machines - depending on the project objective and requirements.

We look forward to hearing from you if you have the right qualifications, personality, creativity, flexibility and team spirit.

Please send your complete application together with the possible starting date and your desired salary to personal@gaemmerler.de

For more info visit inlog-gammerler.com